

Muse in Community

October 2012 to February 2013

Present the stories of Shau Kei Wan through different art forms such as storytelling, poetry, dance, music and photography with the participation of the residents. Showcase these stories in the forms of performance, installation, and publication for the appreciation in the local community.

