

Water • Ink • City Impression

August to October 2014

Chinese ink painting workshops for the people living in Yau Tsim Mong districts to equip them with basic techniques. The participants created an ink painting to reflect their observation and understanding of their community. The painting scroll with a special message became a gift for their friends and neighbours. Best paintings were displayed in the Oasis Gallery.

Presented by Heart to Art